Lisa Vorwerk

I support Dirk Aaron's position that TCEQ begin scientific and public processes to evaluate and extend protections to the Edwards Aquifer into Bell County. I don't know of any other town that has such a pristine creek with spring water flowing into it. It is one of the many things that make Salado a wonderful town to live in. It is also crucial to the wildlife living in this area. We must do everything we can to protect it.