Christopher Freelund

Why are we allowing corporations to build new LNG infrastructure when residents are being asked to go away from it and new housing isn't allowed to use it because of the environmental concerns. You approving this reeks of corruption and backdoor deals with payments to the regulatory committee. Everyone approving this needs a financial investigation done on them.