Tiff Schreiner

Salado Creek is the heartbeat of the historic village. For today and for generations to come, we must consciously protect her thru best environmental practices in Bell County and Williamson county and through the aquifers.