Diane Cheatham

Respectfully request that any subdivision developments currently in the permitting process, or future developments requesting permits are required to take responsibility for their own effluent on site by treating and reusing, on site. All failsafes must be engineered that prevent contamination of Edwards Aquifer.