

Ben Pfeiffer

The building and use of this facility would increase the dangerous transport of coal through our state and help accelerate the global combustion of coal, thus hastening global warming and increasing the odds of climate catastrophes. Keep that coal in the ground. Deny permits to proceed with this project.