

Walter Kuciej

This project should be denied a water quality certification based on the environmental damage it will cause by adding to the carbon dioxide levels in the atmosphere when coal is burned. Wherever it's burned. Despite the current Administration's ignorance of science, global warming is a reality.