

Janice Tufte

Please keep coal away from our previous fragile coastlines here in Washington state Our salmon and other sea creatures are already under stress, we do not need coal or coal dust on top of existing problems