

Philip Jones

We cannot afford to allow the coal industry to cause harm to our environment. We must protect the Columbia River! We live in one of the most beautiful states in the country. The environmental impact the coal industry has had on our state, country and the world is reprehensible.