

Cigdem Capan

I oppose in the strongest terms the coal trains going along the Columbia River. The coal dust that they spread is a threat to the environment and the health of communities living along the river.