

Barbara Morkill

As a citizen in Spokane County i am concerned about the increased oil train traffic passing through our city. The trains pass over our sole source of drinking water, our major hospitals, schools and downtown. An accident would be catastrophic with our fire department stating it would be unable to put out or control a major oil fire. This seems beyond reckless. Who benefits? Not Spokane.

thank you