

Gregory Speltz

I grew up with a pot bellied coal fired stove in the front room. Later it was a coal fired furnace, and both seemed a blessing. They were, keeping us warm in the Wisconsin winter

Now, at age 93 I view coal differently. It pollutes our air and threatens our future. I oppose coal production or processing generally and in the state of Washington particularly.

Greg Speltz