

Larry and Sherry Davis

We deserve better than the Millennium Coal port. Pollution and a handful of jobs (that will not last) is no good for our beautiful area and river. Coal is on the way out. We do not need or want that coal filth here in our area and left to clean up the mess when they are gone. We have enough pollution to deal with already.