

Nickie Davis

My neighborhood on San Juan Island in Washington has a five year old reclaimed water system that has been never been able to be put to use, although the water always tests clean. If this rule could be passed so we could use our reclaimed water in our toilets and underground irrigation system, that would be awesome.

Thank you for your hard work and consideration.