

Rich Fargo

I am a longtime resident of Grays Harbor and an avid kayak fisherman. Please for the love of God do not spray our mudflats with this ridiculously toxic chemical. Most of the decline of bee populations have been linked to Imidacloprid. Use recycled oyster shells to rehabilitate oyster beds. Do not use these chemicals that are pushed by horrible corporations with little "DIRECT RISK" . How about indirect risk. Stop trying to take the easy way out.