

Nadiya Stipanovich

I am against the use of NEUROTOXIN by the oyster farmers. We are bombarded enough with toxins all over. I think we should be more conservative and careful in using those. Especially since little known direct risk to fish, birds, marine mammals, and human health and further research is needed.