

Margaret Fillmore

Our salmon runs are dwindling, orca numbers are declining so anymore pesticides in the water will continue to kill our aquaculture. Large companies like Taylor are abusing our Tide lands with over use without concern for other wildlife. The eagles and other foal feed in these areas putting them at risk also. Cancers are on the rise please don't let them spray our food and wildlife with poison