

Julian Beattie

I am opposed to the use of this pesticide as urge the Department to deny this application. The effects on the local ecosystem have not been adequately studied. The precautionary principle holds that we should not proceed until more is known. Also, my right to a healthy ecosystem outweighs others' right to grow and consume what is in essence a luxury item. Thank you for taking my comment.