

Anonymous Anonymous

The South Fork Nooksack River TMDL publication has no information answering the question: Why should someone bother to address all of the suggested areas to reduce water temperature if those efforts aren't going to reduce river temperature enough anyway to get the river back to where it needs to be for the salmon.