

Don Russell

S1.A.4.Phosphorous inactivation reads: "The Permittee may intentionally apply approved buffering agents, alum, calcium hydroxide/oxide and calcium carbonate as phosphorous inactivation products to the entire water body or sections of the water body per permit sections." Insert "Lanthanum modified bentonite clay and powdered iron" as phosphorus inactivation chemicals in the body of this paragraph.