

Capitol Land Trust

The Streamflow Restoration program needs to include acquisition of land and conservation easement as an effective tool for: 1) water acquisition, by preventing exempt wells from being drilled for residences and acquiring surface water; 2) water storage by allowing natural landscapes to remain undeveloped and permeable; and, 3) promote riparian and fish habitat improvement by acquiring the land or rights for conservation of the habitat and to restore the habitat. Thank you.
thom woodruff