

Marty Crowley

I am a member of the Orca Network and very concerned regarding the pollution of wild salmon by the Atlantic salmon which should have never been introduced in our waters. I am respectfully requesting that your agency stop any and all permits for Net Pen Salmon farming. The diseases that are documented with farmed salmon are threatening our wild stocks and can only continue to do more harm.

Thank you,

Marty Crowley