

Maggie Santos

I would like to see strict regulations on these facilities. They have shown what weak regulations can lead to. In fact I would like to not see them at all. But if you must then best practices for the environment and ecology should be our foremost concern and these concerns should be the guide to strict regulations and oversight.