

Eileen Lauzon

I urge you to issue permits for Federal dams that are in compliance with Washington state environmental and water-quality standards. This must be done with the intent to do as much as possible to preserve habitat for salmon and food source for orcas.