

Heather Nicholson

Please ensure Washington State retains and exercises its ability to regulate for clean water. And please use that authority to ensure our water is protected more than it ever has been and treated with the respect and care it needs and deserves. It's never been more important than now. Everything hangs in the balance.

https://www.seattletimes.com/seattle-news/environment/epa-ices-washington-states-effort-to-regulate-hot-water-in-columbia-snake-rivers/?utm\_source=twitter&utm\_medium=social&utm\_campaign=article

rence is

e_left_1.1