

Ann Soule

I am strongly in favor of our state regulating water temperatures in the Columbia-Snake system that meet the needs of salmon going and coming throughout. I am concerned that this hasn't been addressed sooner, given the Clean Water Act mandate and concerted and expensive efforts on all fronts to protect salmon habitat and survival.

Thank you.