

Linn Crosetto

Hello,

Please protect our unique habitat for salmon and orcas in Washington state. They are both struggling and are a part of the culture and economy of this region. It will be very expensive to try to restore these populations if they drop further, so let's work together to maintain a healthy river ecosystem while we have the chance.

I support the issuance of the permits.