

Karen Hart

Please act to keep water temperatures at a level that will support salmon reproduction and the other species (for example the Southern Resident Orca) that depend on salmon. We urgently need Washington State to take leadership to protect our unique environment.