

Laurie Hrdlicka

Please breach the lower Snake River dams, as it is the last resort in saving the extinction of our only resident whales, The Southern Resident Killer Whales. A new calf has been born. It will likely perish like the others if more food isn't available to them immediately.