

Washington State Department of Agriculture

All references to the active ingredient Temephos should be removed from the Aquatic Mosquito Control General Permit and Fact Sheet. All remaining registrations for pesticide products containing Temephos in the US were cancelled by the EPA in 2015. The last remaining registration for Temephos in Washington was cancelled by the WSDA in 2016.