

Melodie Kirk

Please keep the previously established daily household limit at 3,000 gallons/day. Rural wells account for only half of one percent of water available in Whatcom county. Don't consider well metering as an option.

Follow the intent of the Hirst Fix law instead of using it as an opportunity to go rogue with excessive and overbearing regulation.