Deanna Russell

Please leave our water supply alone. We bought our houses expecting to be able to keep our lawn green and our flowers growing. If you cut the water to the point the lawns are brown in summer you leave a big chance for those lawns to catch on fire. We're NOT running out of water!