

Teresa Campbell

Whenever a new law is put into place by "Our government", someones rights are taken away. I believe that the government should stay our of domestic water use. What purpose does it serve, if it (such usage) does not impact the rivers? Why do you ("Our Government" feel the need to control more and more of our lives?

I disagree with any law which only serves to control the life and situations of the common landowner.