

Anonymous Anonymous

There is not now— nor has there ever been— a shortage of water anywhere in western Washington. Pretending otherwise is a ruse to benefit China. There should be no regulation of wells on private property. Period.