

Rhayma Blake

I am pleased that the Department of Ecology is taking steps to monitor and address the use of water in the area. Based on my personal experience as a homeowner in rural Whatcom County, I believe that the 500 gallon per day limit is appropriate. I would hope that the regulation would provide an exception for fire emergencies that would call for water in an emergency since wild fires are more prevalent.