

Andronetta Douglass

Please prioritize water conservation for residential and commercial water users, instead of projects that sacrifice water for farms in favor of rural development and expensive projects that will alter our environment. Water for stock already comes from a different water rights pool than domestic water use(I think, but not sure on this)