

Michael Luzzo

Within the Yakima River Watershed we have a problem with Horn Rapids Dam (Benton County) and predation with the American White Pelican. Every summer the river dries up to the point that fish flop on hot rocks and are eaten. their passage is severely impeded. Can it be considered to remove the dam?