

Virginia Bell

I attended Gonzaga U. from 1974-79 and know that the Spokane River is a vital resource of fresh water for the region. Please enlist the particular strengths of academic institutions, governments and corporations to create economic and social incentives to care for our planet and the life it sustains.