

Stanley Mrzygod

I am opposed to the proposed variance notice reduction to a 3 week notification. PCBs are extremely damaging to the environment as human health. Once in the river they persist for extremely long periods. A public hearing and time to carefully study the affects on a case by case basis is in the best interest of human health and environmental well being. 90 days would be more reasonable. Thank you.