

Tim Colton

I am in favor of amending the rule to allow for increased spill and TDG at lower Columbia and Snake River dams in order to improve juvenile fish passage in the spring. Ultimately, however, we need to remove the four Lower Snake River dams and possibly some on the Columbia in order to improve conditions for Columbia basin salmon.