

Sharon Bell

Hi Kerry,

I'm wondering if you have reached out to the WA State Dept. of Health about the impacts to the community from the OCC site? Their Site Assessments Program conducts "health consultations and related community education and outreach to protect Washington residents from potential exposure to these contaminants" (I got that from their web page). I think they might be able to offer some meaningful input, especially at an open house forum.

Sharon Bell, R.S.
Environmental Health Specialist
Environmental Health Division
(253) 798-2891 • sbell@tpchd.org
www.tpchd.org