

Anthony Thomas

Cummins Sales and Service have a great deal of experience in assisting Vessel Operators, Shipyards and repair centers in the integration of modern, EPA Tier 1, 2 and 3 Marine Propulsion and Auxiliary Generator engines. As Auxiliary Generators generally operate any time the vessel has personnel on board where shore power is not available, these units should receive attention, but are many times overlooked.