

Shane O'Flaherty

The money should be appropriated to help the Education budget of Washington that the state is in trouble with. Our fine for the lack of Education funding is at $100k a day. Our emissions and transportation should be the least of our worries at the moment.