

Randy Brooks

Mitigation fund allocations

I agree and support allocation of funds along these priorities. Thanks for the opportunity to comment.

Disproportionately impacted communities

I agree that using funds in areas of greatest NOX pollution should be the first priority, and will best benefit disproportionately impacted communities.

General comments

Thanks for the opportunity to comment. I hope funds are used with the least amount of bureaucracy and administrative expense.