

Whole Energy

Whole Energy has been providing renewable fuels and chemicals since 2006 and we are interested in Carbon Policy in Washington State. It would be advantageous for the domestic options for carbon offset to be as large as possible. Currently the only option is the Western Climate Initiative. We encourage the State to research and help foster more regional and domestic markets including a voluntary market in the State of Washington.