

Stephen Jeong

I'm concerned about my family's air quality as affected by WestRock's burning operations. Cancer, asthma and allergies have been linked to air pollution, and I'm frightened by the prospect of WestRock's proposed expansion in capacity. We are still living with the dire consequences of the ASARCO plant, and I ask that WestRock not be allowed to expand its operations that may compromise the health of people who live in the vicinity.