

Caroline Davenport-Riggs

The air quality is noticeably reduced at our home on the North Hill of Des Moines, WA. Our home has a view to the south toward Dash Point and Tacoma. We have noticed that that the visibility to the south has been greatly reduced recently and there is always a haze in the air. It reminds us of being in Beijing on a bad air quality day.