

Hart Heffelfinger

I strongly oppose this due to potential air quality and ecological repercussions. Growing up on Vashon, I was tested in school for diseases disseminated by poor air quality thanks to the Tacoma industrial facilities. We are only now recovering from that and this project could have health affects on many communities and people, and disproportionately affect the poor who can not afford healthcare.