

Nicole Douthit

I am formally requesting clean air testing and control as the pollution the mill puts into the air affects us all, but especially so the immediate surrounding areas, including my home on Vashon Island where I raise my young children.