

Margaret Roncone

We moved to Vashon 3 years ago when I was diagnosed with a rare lymphoma hoping to find a cleaner environment than the city of Seattle. Now reading this it has heightened my fear of the lymphoma I was diagnosed with developing worse symptoms. Please, I beg you to improve your methods to cease the toxic emissions.