

Russell Dial

I don't think a project that adds 15 tons a year of toxic air pollution is good for the people of Tacoma. You can't promise that this air pollution won't travel and affect people all over the region. Industry near major urban centers should not be emitting high levels of toxins and particulates. I don't think this expansion of the pulp mill should be allowed.